

Venerable Traga Rinpoche on the Chehak Ruchen School

We have constructed two narrow buildings with one class room each. We are able to pay for one teacher and the school is now educating 39 children. We would like to educate 100 students. Some of the children are orphans and may come from a long distance. Our students will need dormitories, a kitchen and a cook, and a nurse or doctor. I would like to build a library. The students also need furnishings—tables, chairs and supplies. Our school needs a new bathroom and electricity. I would be very grateful to any kind person who is able to extend financial support. Your money will be used in a meaningful way to benefit many of poor and forgotten children and families of Tibet.

Thank You.

—Traga Rinpoche

Chehak Ruchen's Educational Goals

Instruction currently focuses on literacy in the children's native language, Tibetan. Longer term educational goals include fluency in the area's second language, Chinese, and in English. Meeting these modest educational goals will go a long way toward enabling these young nomadic Tibetans to become economically self-sufficient and socially stable.

Building and Maintaining Chethak Ruchen

To complete this wonderful project, the school needs the following funds:

One office	30,000 Yen / $3,750.00 USD
Salaries for 3 teachers/year....	18,000 Yen / $2,250 USD
Rooms for 3 teachers	30,000 Yen / $3,750.00 USD
Wall around school	35,000 Yen / $4,375 USD
(this is necessary or the land can be used by anyone for any purpose)
A kitchen and cafeteria	40,000 Yen / $5,000 USD
New dormitories.....	25,000 Yen / $625 USD
Facility furnishings	70,000 Yen / $8,750 USD

Traga Rinpoche continues to seek the kind support of all who would like to help the impoverished people of Tibet. Please consider supporting these children. You can open many doors of opportunity and benefit many for many generations.
